OPENING PRAYER

Minister: Jesus said, “I am the resurrection, and I am the life; he who believes in me though he dies, yet shall he live, and whoever lives and believes in me shall never die.” (John 11:25-26)

We brought nothing into the world, and we take nothing out. The Lord gives and the Lord takes away; blessed be the name of the Lord*(1Timothy 6:7; Job 1: 21)

God is our refuge and strength, an ever present help in trouble (Ps: 46:1)

The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases; his mercies and compassion never come to an end; they are new every morning ;( Lamentations 3:22-23)

For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. (John 3:16)

38 For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, 39 nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord. (Romans 8:38-39)

All: Heavenly Father, in your Son Jesus Christ you have given us a true faith and a sure hope.

Strengthen this faith and hope in us all our days, that we may live as those who believe in the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins and the resurrection to eternal life; through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PSALM 90: (The whole congregation to say together)

Lord, you have been our dwelling place throughout all generations.<sup>2</sup> Before the mountains were born or you brought forth the whole world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God. <sup>3</sup> You turn people back to dust, saying, “Return to dust, you mortals.” <sup>4</sup> A thousand years in your sight are like a day that has just gone by, or like a watch in the night. <sup>5</sup> Yet you sweep people away in the sleep of death they are like the new grass of the morning: <sup>6</sup> In the morning it springs up new, but by evening it is dry and withered. <sup>7</sup> We are consumed by your anger and terrified by your indignation. <sup>8</sup> You have set our iniquities before you, our secret sins in the light of your presence. <sup>9</sup> All our days pass away under your wrath; we finish our years with a moan. <sup>10</sup> Our days may come to seventy years, or eighty, if our strength endures; yet the best of them are but trouble and sorrow, for they quickly pass, and we fly away. <sup>11</sup> If only we knew the power of your anger! Your wrath is as great as the fear that is your due. <sup>12</sup> Teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom. <sup>13</sup> Relent, LORD! How long will it be? Have compassion on your servants. <sup>14</sup> Satisfy us in the morning with your unfailing love, that we may sing for joy and be glad all our days. <sup>15</sup> Make us glad for as many days as you have afflicted us, for as many years as we have seen trouble. <sup>16</sup> May your deeds be shown to your servants, your splendor to their children. <sup>17</sup> May the favor of the Lord our God rest on us; establish the work of our hands for us yes, establish the work of our hands.

FIRST READING: JOHN 14:1-7

“Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God[a]; believe also in me. 2 My Father’s house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you? 3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am. 4 You know the way to the place where I am going.”

Jesus the Way to the Father

5 Thomas said to him, “Lord, we don’t know where you are going, so how can we know the way?”

6 Jesus answered, “I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. 7 If you really know me, you will know[b] my Father as well. From now on, you do know him and have seen him.”

SECOND READING: ECCLESIASTES 3:1-7

There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens:<sup>2</sup> a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to uproot,<sup>3</sup> a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build,<sup>4</sup> a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance,<sup>5</sup> a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them, a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing,<sup>6</sup> a time to search and a time to give up, a time to keep and a time to throw away,<sup>7</sup> a time to tear and a time to mend, a time to be silent and a time to speak,

“Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say rejoice!”
Phillipians 4:4

SERMON:

Concluding Prayer: (All stand and say)

You Christ are the King of glory; the eternal Son of the Father
When you became man to set us free; you did not abhor the Virgin's womb. You overcame the sting of death, and opened The kingdom of heaven to all believers. You are seated at the Right hand of God in glory; We believe that you will come and be our judge. Come then Lord and help your people; bought with the price of Your own blood and bring us with your saints to glory everlasting.

Priest: Let us pray; Lord have mercy upon us

All: Christ have mercy upon us

Priest: Lord have mercy upon us

THE LORD'S PRAYER

All: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name
Your Kingdom come, your will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us today our daily bread, forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not to temptation, but deliver us from evil
For the Kingdom, the power and the glory are yours
now and forever.
Amen.
